Moses was tending sheep on Mount Horeb when he saw a bush that was on fire but not burning up. Curious, he approached it.

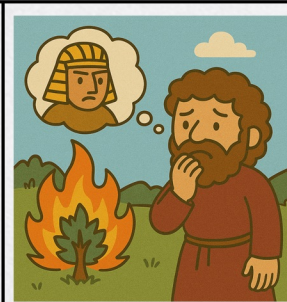

From the burning bush, God called Moses by name, saying, "Moses, Moses!" Moses replied, "Here am I."

God told Moses to take off his sandals because he was standing on holy ground. He then revealed that He was the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

God told Moses that He had seen the suffering of His people in Egypt and had come down to rescue them. He wanted Moses to go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Moses was afraid and questioned how he could go to Pharaoh. God promised to be with him and assured him that He would help him speak.

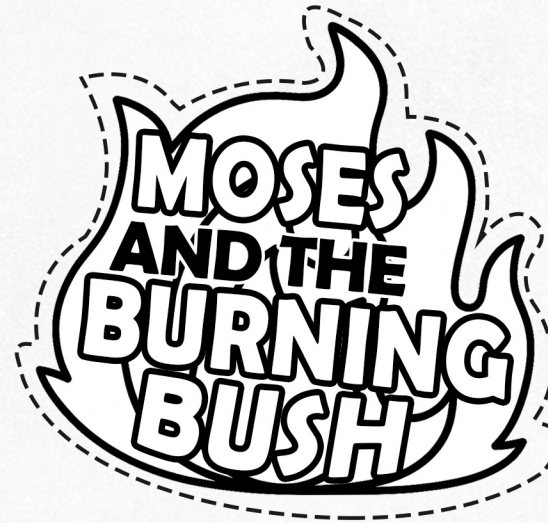

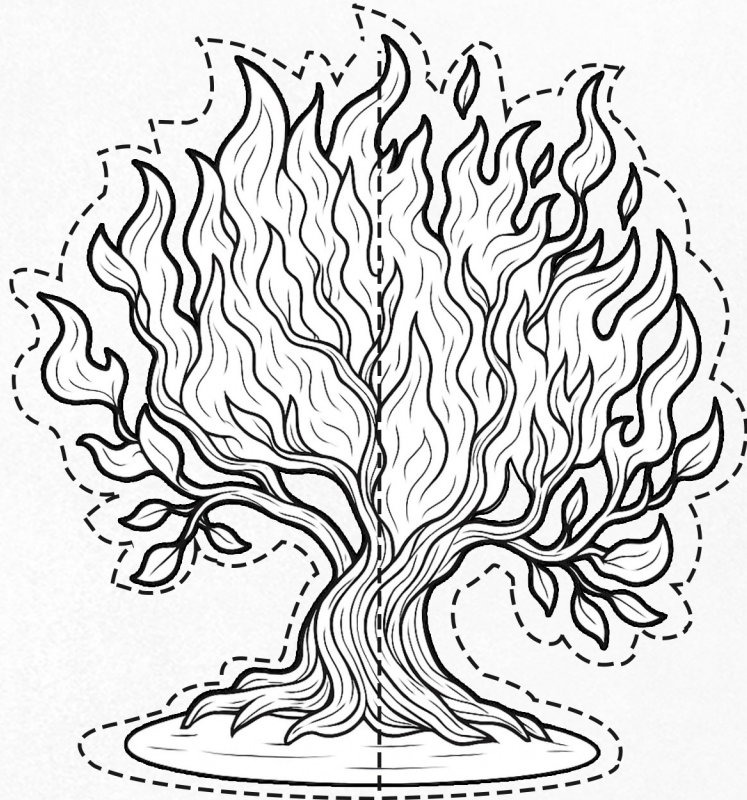

God gave Moses signs to show the Israelites and Pharaoh that He was the one sending him. God told Moses to go, for He would be with him every step of the way.
