

Parable of the Lost Sheep

In the parable of the Lost Sheep, Jesus teaches about God's love and care for every individual. When one sheep is lost, the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine others to search for it. This story shows that God values each of us so deeply that He will go to great lengths to bring us back when we stray.

Jesus told a story about a shepherd who had 100 sheep. One day, one of the sheep went missing, and the shepherd realized it was lost.

The shepherd immediately left the 99 other sheep in the open field and set off to search for the lost one. He searched high and low, not giving up.

After a long search, the shepherd found the lost sheep. He was overjoyed and gently lifted it onto his shoulders, ready to take it home.

The shepherd carried the sheep back home, calling his friends and neighbors to celebrate, saying, "Rejoice with me, I have found my lost sheep!"

Jesus explained that there is great joy in heaven when one sinner repents. Just as the shepherd rejoiced over finding his lost sheep, God rejoices when a lost soul is found and restored.

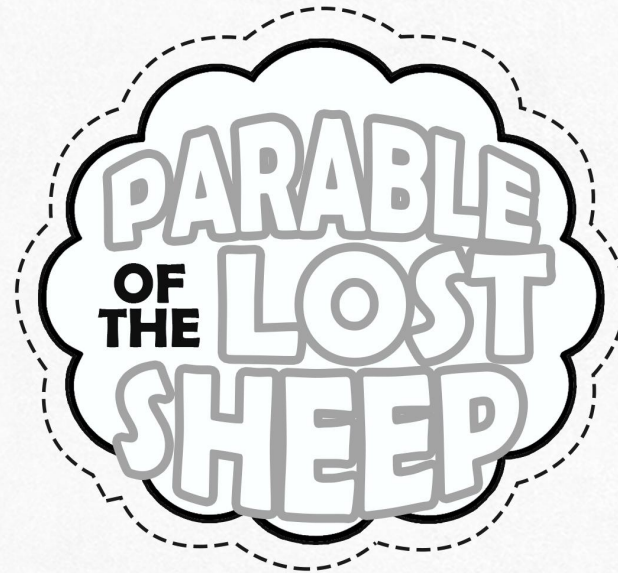

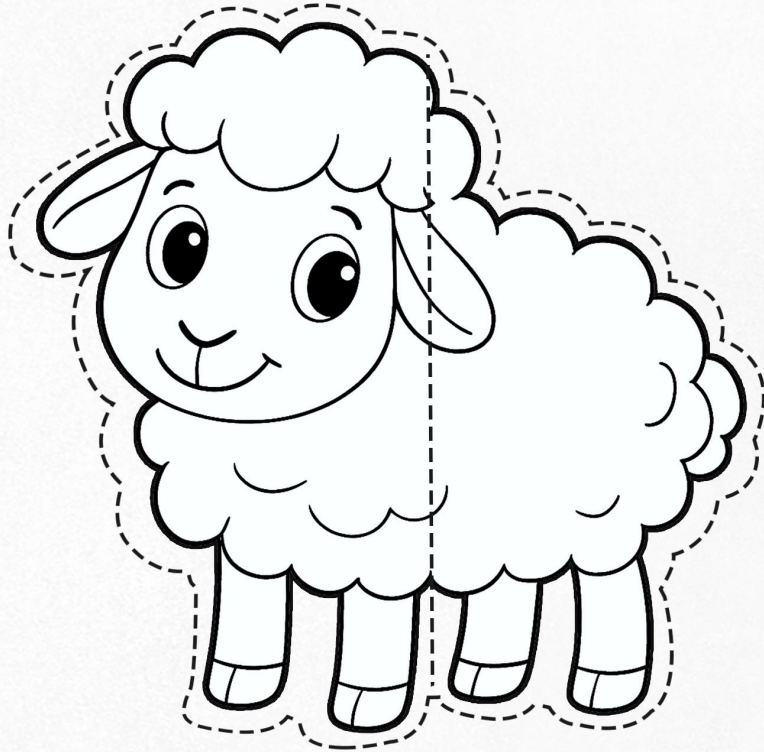

This parable teaches that God cares deeply for each individual, and no one is too small or unimportant to be loved and sought after by Him.
